MAN KILLED; YOUTH IS INJURED WHEN BARREL EXPLODES

George Ferris Dies Within Few Minutes of Entering Hospital—Gordon Laycock Has Fractured Wrist and Minor Cuts and Bruises—Rubbish Fire and Tar Cause Accident

ONE man was killed and another badly injured when a tar barrel, thrown onto a rubbish fire in the Mount Tolmie sandpit, exploded yesterday afternoon. George Ferris, operator of a cement brick plant at the pit, suffered head injuries from which he died shortly after being taken to the Jubilee Hospital in the C. & C. ambulance. Gordon Laycock, who was employed by Mr. Ferris, suffered a fractured wrist, a gash on the left leg, and facial bruises. Both men lived in a house situated in the sandpit.

The fatality occurred about 4 o'clock in the afternoon. Mr. Ferris was burning some old timbers and threw an empty tar barrel on to the burning pile. Apparently the heat was too intense, and the barrel melted the tar, with the result that the hard tar, which coated the inside of the barrel, expanded quickly, forming gases, which caused the explosion.

One end of the barrel was blown out and landed seventy-five feet away. The barrel itself was lifted into the air and dropped on Mr. Ferris' head, fracturing his skull.

STRUCK BY TIMBER

Flying pieces of timber struck Gordon Laycock, a sixteen-year-old youth, and caused him painful, although not serious, injuries. Residents nearby heard the explosion and immediately notified the Sanic Police. Sergeant Robert Brown responded and rendered first aid and both injured men were removed to the hospital. Dr. E. L. McNeven attended both victims, but Mr. Ferris never regained consciousness, dying within a few minutes after entering the hospital.

DEATH OF BABY IS MYSTIFYING

Toronto Police Trying to Solve Puzzle of Infant's Death

TORONTO, Oct. 26 (CP).—A tragic question mark stood tonight at the base of a house brought forth by the death of Alfreda "Bunny" Hillier, aged eighteen months.

Her unclad body was found early today behind a clump of bushes in a public dump not 300 yards beyond the home she strayed from at mid-afternoon on Wednesday.

A few feet away, piled in a basket, were the tiny wooden doll, a sweater in which her mother had dressed her against the cold. Nearby lay a blood-stained cloth.

DEATH BY EXPOSURE

Despite the fact an autopsy revealed only superficial cuts, coronial "gross lesions" sufficient to cause death, neither the police nor Chief Coroner M. M. Crawford were willing to take the view no one was implicated. The report of Dr. Crawford and Dr. W. L. Robinson, pathologist, indicated death was "probably due to exposure," but both said this did not preclude the child's having died of exposure at some other place than the point at which she was found.

Meanwhile, police pushed investigation of the death from all angles, including the possibility of murder, which was the first assumption when the body was found, lying

SIAMESE WOMEN OFFER SERVICES

Rumors of King's Flight to Singapore Denied—Not Forming Female Battalions

BANGKOK, Siam, Oct. 26 (AP).—Siamese women are entering actively into the struggle between the royal troops and insurgents.

The wife of the Premier, Gen. Phya Bhalol, offered the Premier the services of the women's party for defence today.

The Premier accepted the offer, with the proviso that the women's work be restricted to the rear of the battle lines and to help in feeding the troops.

An official communique denied rumors that the king had fled to Singapore, and stated that he still is at his residence in Siam.

Aged Woman Lost In Woods Is Safe

WEST VANCOUVER, Oct. 26 (CP).—After being lost for two days and two nights, Mrs. A. Austin, seventy-six, was found by her son-in-law, Major J. Edleston, and West Vancouver police last Wednesday.

Although she had been without food for forty-eight hours and had been wandering around aimlessly in the rain, Mrs. Austin showed little ill effect from her harrowing experience.

Committee Given Task of Reviving Arms Conference

Disarmament Parley Adjourned Until December 4—Bureau to Map Out Line of Action in Meantime—Withdrawal of Germany Will Not Halt Efforts to Obtain Reductions

GENEVA, Oct. 26 (CP).—Determination that withdrawal of Germany from the arms conference shall not halt efforts to reach agreement on measures of further disarmament was the dominant note as the World Disarmament Conference held a brief session today and then accepted recommendation of the steering committee to adjourn to December 4.

SARRAUT FORMS NEW MINISTRY

French Premier to Continue Main Policies of Edouard Daladier

PARIS, Oct. 27 (AP).—Premier Albert Sarraut early today announced formation of a new ministry for France, which varied little from the Cabinet of former Premier Daladier.

With himself as Premier and Minister of Marine, he chose former Premier Daladier as Minister of War, and Joseph Paul-Boncour as Minister of Foreign Affairs.

George Bonnet was also chosen to hold his former position as Minister of Finance. The other ministries were announced as follows:

Vice-Premier and Minister of Justice—Albert Daladier, former Minister of Colonies.
Minister of Fresh Fisheries—Camille Chauviere (same post).
Minister of the Budget—Abel Gardey.

Retarded Polls in Province Will Stay Final Poll Return

Candidates Defeated in Thirty-Seven Other Ridings May Secure Nomination in Victoria and Vancouver Centre Later

WITH the largest and most scattered political field of entrants in its history, British Columbia's 1933 general election, with its ramifications, is going to last well into the new year, 1934, it became apparent at the Legislative Buildings yesterday. Retarded polls in Victoria City and Vancouver Centre, with six seats in the balance, will not be finally settled until about January 2, allowing statutory delays before and after official counts and the possibility of recounts.

In addition, split polling dates throughout will play weird pranks on voters and candidates alike. November 2 will be recognised as a holiday in thirty-seven electoral districts, but not in Victoria and Vancouver riding. November 27 will be a holiday in Victoria and Vancouver Centre, but not in the rest of the province. To be sure about it, liquor stores are to be closed on both days, the provincial authorities have decided.

If party leaders or their lieutenants miscalculate their strength and go down to defeat in any of the thirty-seven ridings on November 2, they will still have a second chance in either Victoria or Vancouver Centre, where fresh nominations begin on November 4. In addition, any person who would like to have entered the race before may do so in respect to the two retarded polls in Victoria and its Vancouver counterpart will have ring-side seats at the general election of November 2, with a certainty that whatever the electors do in respect to forty-one

VANCOUVER, Oct. 26.—Funeral services for the late W. J. Bowser, K.C., will be held in Vancouver on Saturday afternoon, after which the remains will be cremated. The ashes will be forwarded to Victoria for interment.

The body is resting at Nunn & Thomson's Undertaking Parlor, 2559 Cambie Street.

U.S. RAISES GOLD PRICE

Order Clarifies Regulation Governing Buying of Newly-Mined Metal

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26 (CP).—As the United States Government pushed the price of newly-mined gold 18¢ higher today, a presidential order made it clear only gold "recovered from the natural deposits in the United States or any piece subject to the jurisdiction thereof" could be purchased under the new Roosevelt monetary policy.

The order ruled out the possibility of the gold mines of Canada or any other country outside the United States jurisdiction might be able to take advantage of the high price set by the Washington Government.

The quotation of $31.54 fixed here today was 45¢ to 57¢ above the price of the metal on the London market.

ULSTER MEMBER SHOT BY THUGS

Anti-Republican Activity Is Cause of Attack on Former Canadian

BELFAST, Northern Ireland, Oct. 26 (CP).—Major J. H. McCormick, a member of the Ulster Parliament and formerly sheriff of Lloyds-minister, was recovering in hospital today from a bullet wound, inflicted, it was believed, because of his anti-Republican activities.

He was walking home late tonight when two men held him up and fired three shots at him from a revolver. One bullet grazed his chest and another hit his arm.

Despite the wounds, Major McCormick instantly closed with his assailants and dealt one of them a severe blow in the face with his cane. He continued his resistance with such vigor that the attackers fled.

One, however, grabbed McCormick's satchel containing parliamentary papers, which was dropped in the struggle.

The major followed the men a short distance, but was not able to overtake them, he informed police. It is not believed his wound is serious.

Honduran Floods Continue Serious

TEGUCIGALPA, Honduras, Oct. 26 (AP).—Destructive floods, which started Wednesday in Northern and Northwestern Honduras, continued today to menace many towns and plantations and to disrupt communication lines and bridges.

Cortes, Copan and Santa Barbara were especially hard hit, official dispatches reporting large losses on farms.

PRINCE HAS SLIGHT COLD

WESTERN FARMERS MUST BE ASSISTED BY BUSINESS MEN DECLARES HON. H. H. STEVENS

Trade Minister Gives Plain Warning to Meat Packers and Mortgage Companies That If They Do Not Do Something to Ease Situation the Government Will Step In

Says Prices Must Be Increased And Interest Rates Be Lowered

WINNIPEG, Oct. 26 (CP).—Unless meat packers and other interests dealing in farm products take action to raise the prices the farmer receives, the Government may have to step in and do it for them, Hon. H. H. Stevens, Minister of Trade and Commerce, told the Winnipeg Board of Trade today. The same thing, he said, applied to insurance and loan companies holding farm mortgages at interest rates the farmer was unable to pay.

GAINS CONTINUE IN EMPLOYMENT

Increase Noted for Sixth Consecutive Month—Reflects Business Upturn

OTTAWA, Oct. 26 (CP).—Industrial employment at the beginning of October showed its sixth consecutive monthly increase, according to the Dominion Bureau of Statistics. Statements received by $240 firms, the bureau reports, show the staffs of these firms had increased from 816,458 in the preceding month to 834,948 persons at the beginning of October.

Activity has frequently declined between September and October in the twelve years of the record, the bureau's report continues, the change on the average being a fractional reduction.

SLIDE DERAILS CARS

BEND, Ore., Oct. 26 (AP).—A rockslide that hurled down the side of a steep hill near Mapun last night blocked the Oregon Trunk Railroad line into Deschutes, derailing two passenger trains and delaying the arrival of the southbound train in Bend by more than two hours. No one was injured.

PRIEST RELEASED BY PARISHIONERS

Was Held Virtual Prisoner for More Than Four Months During Church Dispute

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 26 (CP).—Held a virtual prisoner for four and a half months, the Rev. Simpliciano Gatti, former assistant rector of the Church of Our Lady of Good Counsel, has been released by his parishioners.

He left the church Tuesday night, after he was released by his parishioners. He was held in the church by a group of men who were not identified.

WILL SAIL NEXT WEEK

SEATTLE, Oct. 26 (AP).—City Councilman Ralph D. Nichols today directed that an ordinance be drafted to set up machinery for the city "to go into the liquor business," after repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment, saying direct sales by the city would bring $2,000,000 and $3,000,000 annual revenue. He said he would introduce the proposed ordinance as soon as it is drafted.

Australian Paper in Criticizing Members Guilty of Contempt

Sydney Sunday Sun Is Condemned by Legislators for Bitter Editorial Attack on Them Over Increasing Their Own Salaries

CANBERRA, Australia, Oct. 26 (CP).—Outcome of wide protests against the House of Representatives and the Senate approving an increase in salary of members of the lower House, the printer and publisher of The Sydney Sunday Sun have been found guilty by Parliament of contempt.

Decision of Parliament to partially restore the cut made in members' salary two years ago, by an increase ratified yesterday, led the newspaper to use the phrase: "Cometh as a thief in the night to dip into the public purse with the celerity of a pickpocket."

MEMBERS INDIGNANT

The House of Representatives held an indignation meeting and unanimously passed a resolution, declaring the newspaper's various statements constituted a malicious attack

GUARDSMEN AID IN STRIKE AREAS

Opposition to Farmers' Holiday Grows in Iowa—Sheriffs Escort Trucks to Market

DES MOINES, Oct. 26 (AP).—Thirty Iowa National Guardsmen were utilized as deputy sheriffs tonight as growing opposition to the Iowa Farmers' National Holiday Association developed in Western Iowa.

Fully armed, the guardsmen, with four officers, left Glenwood to establish headquarters at the Iowa end of a bridge across the Missouri River into Plattsmouth, Nebraska. Sheriff William DeMoss of Glenwood, who deputized the guardsmen, said they would clear highways of pickets and escort trucks to Omaha markets.

Empire Trade Agreements Leading Way to Recovery

LONDON, Oct. 25 (CP).—The British Empire is an example to the world that co-operation for positive results is possible between great and free nations, declared Rt. Hon. J. H. Thomas, Secretary for the Dominions, in a speech here tonight.

Speaking on the theme of "The Empire in World Politics," Mr. Thomas said there were hopeful signs in the worst and greatest crisis in history was passing. Nowhere were there signs more numerous than in the British Empire.

In the last three months, he pointed out, British imports had increased by $40,000,000 and her exports by $45,000,000. In Canada, Australia, New Zealand and South Africa a similar improvement, in proportion, had taken place.

In the nine months immediately following the Ottawa Imperial Economic Conference, he went on, Great Britain's trade with the rest of the Empire rose from 36 to 40 per cent of her total trade. In the latest period the total trade of the Dominions and India with the United Kingdom had similarly increased.

arms conference and the League of Nations.

In any event the steering committee will proceed with its task.

FAILURE MEANS CONFESSION.

Failure to go ahead, stressed Mr. Hon. Arthur Henderson, conference chairman, at this afternoon's meeting, would be a confession the governments represented were not prepared to discharge their obligations.

"That is a responsibility no government would agree to assume before its own people and before the world," he said.

Captain Anthony Eden, Under-Secretary for Foreign Affairs, British spokesman in the absence of Sir John Simon, added: "It is quite clear the withdrawal of the German delegation from the conference cannot be without its effect on the

Will Play at City Temple Here This Evening

THE Gizeh Temple Shrine Band, under the direction of Lieutenant James M. Miller, will give a concert tonight in the City Temple at 8 o'clock. A varied programme of inspiring band selections, cornet and other instrumentals has been arranged. Miss Dorothy Parsons, popular city soprano, will sing, while piano solos will be given by Miss Elsie Friend. Madame Reese Burns will give two readings. A collection in aid of City Temple funds will be taken.

WORK MUST GO ON

"But it is the view of His Majesty's Government this evening, however sincerely we may deplore it, must not be allowed to stop our work for disarmament. On the contrary we feel it must go on. However, I think it would be a mistake to spend time over investigation of past events. It is the future that must concern us and it is to the future course of our work that henceforth we must devote ourselves."

Representatives of the Little Entente appeared at a conference last night at the bureau making its final decisions. It was important, Constantin Fotich, of Yugoslavia, urged, that all states have an opportunity to explain their views before definite conclusions are reached. Mr. Fotich was assured by Mr. Henderson every opportunity for consultation would be provided and every line of the draft convention would be subject to subsequent approval of the general commission.

NEAR HOME

Over against any opinion that the child was undressed by other children or an adult and left where she was found, was the fact of her nearness to the Miller home; had she been handled brutally her cries would have aroused the neighborhood.

WESTERN FARMERS MUST BE ASSISTED BY BUSINESS MEN

nesses languish, and if agriculture prospers the others also prosper.

BEST POLICY

"Consideration of the other fellow is now the best policy," Mr. Stevens continued. "The farmer cannot pay 8 or 10 per cent interest on mortgages. This places loan and insurance companies who hold mortgages in a position where they can practise deflation and foreclosure."

"Don't forget this," the minister warned. "If the farmer is going down, it means a bevy of business men will go down with them. In the adjustment of the weight of debt it is better to get half a loaf than none at all."

"Loan and insurance companies must face the facts and adopt the policy of extending time," Mr. Stevens concluded. "The debtor class must be given more consideration than it has been receiving."

"We are doing all we can toward stabilization of wheat, but prices of other commodities, mainly beef, eggs and butter, must be raised in order that agriculturists may be placed in a position to buy."

Initial Picture of Kipling Seen Here

Through the courtesy of J. M. Robertson, manager of the Dominion Theatre, members of the Canadian Authors' Association were permitted to review a private showing of the Paramount news film showing the first motion and talking picture ever taken of Rudyard Kipling.

The occasion of this picture was the banquet given at Claridge's in London, in honor of the visiting Canadian authors, who held their convention in London last July.

Gilbert K. Chesterton, who appeared after Rudyard Kipling, eulogized Canada's magnificent eastern gateway, the St. Lawrence, which had made a deep impression on him during his visit to Canada some time ago. Mr. Chesterton's remarks formed a fitting prelude to the remainder of the film, which consisted of air views of a Canadian Pacific liner proceeding up the St. Lawrence, carrying the returning authors. Points of historic interest as well as quaint habitants were shown to the interested audience.

SCHOOL STAGE TO BE CHANGED

Lampson Street Students to Present Operetta—Auditorium Platform to Undergo Changes

Because pupils of the school will present an operetta shortly and present space is inadequate, Esquimalt School Board last night authorized extensive alterations to be made on the stage of Lampson Street School.

The old background, made up of discarded blackboards, will be torn down and wooden and cardboard sections will be erected to form the backdrop. Colored stage lights will be purchased and a dinner installed.

The operetta, "The Pirate's Daughter," is expected to be produced last week in the present school term, although no definite date has been set. It will be announced on November 18. Hugh Greelman, principal of the school, is director.

Attendance at the school was 95.2 per cent for September, while the high school attendance was 96.2 per cent. Five dollars was voted to the V.A.S.C. to help defray expenses of its recent regatta. Salaries and expenses, amounting to $3,197.85, were ordered paid.

The Royal Juvenile Athletic Association was given the use of the Lampson Street School gymnasium on Fridays to enable the Esquimalt entry a place to play its home games. The team was allotted from 7 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.

Knock-Out Scene To Be Filmed in Front of Public

ANOTHER opportunity will be afforded the public to see how motion pictures are filmed when the last scene of the prize fight for "The Crimson West" is shot in the Horse Show Building at 6:30 o'clock Saturday night.

This scene is the knock-out blow delivered by Nick Stuart to his opponent, Charles Stuart, and was not taken on Wednesday night owing to the number of other scenes that had to be filmed.

More than 1,500 persons turned out for the last public filming, and it is expected that a similar crowd will be on hand for this second opportunity to see the players in action.

Conciliation board to act

Ordered to Investigate Dispute Between B.C.E.R. and Employees.

OTTAWA, Oct. 26 (CP).—A board of conciliation has been established by Hon. W. A. Gordon, Minister of Labor, to deal with the dispute between the British Columbia Electric Railway Company and approximately 1,400 of its employees in Vancouver, Victoria and New Westminster.

A. G. McCandless, Vancouver, has been appointed a member of the board of the recommendation of the company. A recommendation from the employees is expected shortly at the Department of Labor. When representatives of employer and employees have been appointed, they will confer on selection of a chairman. Failing agreement, this appointment will be made by the minister.

A three-year agreement under which the employees had been working, and which had been modified in December, 1932, by a 5 per

What do the BIG CAR owners say?

YOU want more than average anti-knock in gasoline that goes into a Cadillac or Packard. That's one reason owners of big cars all over the country are changing to Super Shell.

And extra mileage, that's another reason. Every day reports come in of one, of two, and sometimes even more extra miles to the gallon! Super Shell seems to do a job that these enthusiastic big car owners could never get before from a regular-priced gasoline.

You can see why when you realize that we remove from Super Shell all those "gassy" and sluggish parts which cut an ordinary gasoline's efficiency. And remember, too, that we add to Super Shell special petroleum fractions which have remarkably high anti-knock and mileage qualities. It's a concentrated gasoline made to do far more than an average job.

No wonder it has been such a success. No wonder car owners—big car owners and small car owners everywhere have used it, praised it and bought it again and again. Try it in your car—learn what a real difference Super Shell makes in mileage, in knockless power, in starting... every way!

ALBERTA HAZING CASE CONCLUDED

EDMONTON, Oct. 26 (CP).—Judgment was reserved by Mr. Justice Ives, last night, at conclusion of the $200,000 damage action brought by Armand and Horatio Powlett against the University of Alberta and its governing bodies. The case, which had lasted two weeks and three days, came to a close after a three-hour night session of the court. The Powletts sued on the grounds Armand Powlett became insane as the result of alleged acts of sophomores students during initiation ceremonies at the university in the Fall of 1932.

The crocodile lives to be about 100 years old.

MORE SOCIAL LAWS NEEDED

N. W. Whittaker Explains Liberal Platform—Tribute Is Paid

"Splendid social legislation, particularly favoring the women, was enacted under the Liberal regime, while nothing has been done in your behalf during the last five years by the Tolmie administration," declared Norman W. Whittaker, Liberal candidate in Saanich riding, in an address before Saanich women electors on Wednesday afternoon in St. Martin's Hall, Obed Avenue. Allan Chambers also spoke briefly.

Word was received during the meeting of the sudden death in Vancouver of W. J. Bowser, K.O. former Premier of British Columbia. Tribute to Mr. Bowser was paid by Mr. Whittaker and Mr. Chambers, both of whom spoke of the many years of service rendered the Province by Mr. Bowser.

LIBERAL LEGISLATION
Eight-hour day law, minimum wage for women and girls, equal guardianship of infants, Deserted Wives' Maintenance Act, mothers' pensions and old age pensions were some of the measures the Liberal party had brought in during their twelve years in office. "These were things the public demanded and which they got," he stated.

"After five years of government, Hon. J. W. Jones, Minister of Finance, with Dr. Tolmie, said there has been too much social legislation," he stated. "Can you vote for the leader of such a party and at the same time be fair to yourselves and children?" he asked.

Federal Minister Wires Expression Of Personal Grief

HON. H. H. STEVEN, Federal Minister for British Columbia, on learning of the sudden passing of W. J. Bowser, K.O., telegraphed to The Colonist from Winnipeg.

"I am greatly shocked at the untimely death of my old friend Mr. Bowser. I had feared that the strenuous effort incidental to a campaign would prove too much for him. In his day he was one of the greatest administrators of public life in British Columbia ever had."

Tulio's slogan, "Where precedent is good, we will follow it; where it is bad, we will scrap it; and where it is necessary, we will create it." He explained this statement and pointed out that four requirements were necessary for the Government to be elected: a party, a platform, organization, unity, policy and leadership.

"The Liberal party is the only party to have these four requirements and so logically is the only one to be elected," declared Mr. Whittaker. "Given these four requirements, the situation is not hopeless. There is no problem either in the present or future that cannot be solved satisfactorily," he stated.

WOMEN IN POLITICS
He declared the entrance of women into public life was beneficial to the Province. Such women as the Hon. Mrs. Mary Ellen Smith and Mrs. Paul Smith were evidence of this, said Mr. Whittaker.

When the Liberal Government is elected, no one will be allowed to stand for election without a plank in the party's platform and would create a large amount of creative public works. A public utilities commission would be established to investigate huge private corporations.

The advantages of the Economic Council, as advocated in the Liberal platform, was one of the best, affirmed Mr. Chambers. Representatives of such branches of work as health, education, agriculture, labor and the industries would work together. They would form an advisory council to the Government and aid it in administering these particular branches well.

TRADING STUDIED
The council would familiarize itself with intra-provincial, inter-provincial and foreign trade and will co-operate with other provinces and the Dominion in such questions as production and consumption, marketing of British Columbia and Dominion products, number of hours in a working day and standard of wages and commodity prices.

"The election of November is facing a crucial period in the history of the province," declared Mr. Chambers. "You must either vote for Liberalism or you must vote for plunging into chaos," he stated. Unemployment insurance, state health insurance and maintenance of social services were absolutely necessary for the well being of the province, declared the speaker. Refreshments were served following the meeting.

RUMORS RIFE IN POLITICAL CAMPS

Stories of Possible Party Mergers Are Circulated and Immediately Denied

As British Columbia recovers from the first shock of the sudden passing of W. J. Bowser, K.O., dominant figure in the election contests and leader of the Non-Partisan group in the campaign, citizens speculated yesterday on the confusion caused by the tragic happening. The situation was complex in any event. Now it is regarded as being most difficult to measure.

Rumors and reports flew thick and fast. It was reported from Vancouver that Dr. Alfred E. Thompson, former M.P. for the Yukon, and a personal friend of both Mr. Bowser and Premier Tolmie, had been asked to mediate between the Non-Partisans and Unionists in an effort to bring them together.

Dr. Thompson admitted that he had been approached by representative men from both camps, asking him to act in such capacity. Against this is the telephoned statement from Vancouver, last night, of Fred Elliott, campaign manager for the Non-Partisan forces in Victoria, to the effect that no rumor of a being given to any merging of forces. "The Non-Partisans will carry on throughout the campaign according to plan. Just what the outcome will be, no person is prepared to predict, but all agree that the delayed elections in Victoria and Vancouver Centre have created a perplexing political situation."

BINGHAMPTON, N.Y., Oct. 26 (AP).—Seven persons, some of them children, were drowned near the village of Afton, twenty miles from here last night, when the automobile in which they were riding plunged into the Susquehanna River.

FAIR DATES MADE KNOWN

Annual Exhibition Will Be Held During Week of August 20 to 26

August 20 to 26 has been set as Fair Week for the British Columbia Agricultural Association, W. H. Mearns, secretary, was advised yesterday.

Coincident with this announcement it was learned that the association had made a handsome profit on its fair this year, but when questioned with regard to the amount of profit T. W. Hawkins, president, said he could make no announcement until after the annual meeting, when the financial statement will be filed.

In commenting on the 1934 Fair dates, however, he expressed his gratification that the fair week had been set earlier.

"Fall Fairs in this city do not catch the fine weather. Last year when we held it in August, we had fine weather. This year it was poor, as in 1931, when it was held in the fall," Mr. Hawkins said.

The gate receipts depend greatly on the weather, and it is felt that an earlier show would assure greater success even though there might not be as many entries as would be obtainable during September, the president said.

GIVES TALK ON OVERSEAS TOUR

National Secretary of Canadian Authors' Body Reviews Pilgrimage

Howard Angus Kennedy, national secretary of the Canadian Authors' Association, through whose efforts a representative group of literary writers of the Dominion made a tour of England and Scotland last July, was the guest speaker at the monthly meeting of the Victoria and Island Branch of the national association at the Empress Hotel last night.

Mr. Kennedy, who was the guiding spirit of the tour, gave a delightful lecture on those places in England and Scotland so familiar to readers all over the civilized world when they are associated with the renowned writers and poets for which these two countries are justly famous. Mr. Kennedy presented a generous collection of lantern slides showing the various places visited by the group, and his description of each was an epic of romance and history.

PURPOSE OF TOUR
The national secretary prefaced his lecture with a review of the purposes of the tour, which was really an extension of the National convention, which had its commencement in the ancient City of Quebec. He mentioned the difficulties that confronted what he chose to call "the expedition." One of the main problems, he said, was to obtain a party which would honorably represent the Canadian Authors' Association and one that would be received with the respect due to Canadian writers and one that would take with it the character of the literary culture of the Dominion. Mr. Kennedy admitted that a great amount of care was required, but the whole tour proved, in the end, to be worthy of the effort.

During his lecture he mentioned some of the amusing incidents of the tour and one was the meeting of the Canadian group with that very widely-known author, George Bernard Shaw, at the Forum Club in London, when mentioning the possibility of a tour of Canada, very shrewdly remarked that he "expected to be limited and mobbed," but who was gently reminded by one of the Canadian group that he would be neither, but would be "received with all the respect and courtesy due to a distinguished and cultured literary personage."

HISTORIC PLACES

Mr. Kennedy's lecture was exceptionally interesting for several reasons. He has the gift of Scotch humor and he used it freely to illustrate the "big little things" of the tour of places visited, as seen through the eyes and impressions of the mind of an author. Of the birthplace of William Shakespeare he simply remarked: "It would be ridiculous to try to invent words to describe it," and showed the picture.

Some of the scenes he more fully described were the Houses of Parliament, Trafalgar Square, Prior Guards, Tower of London, the Mansion House, the Zoological Gardens, famous cathedrals, and rural scenes in Scotland. Of each he had some kindly reference to make.

Mr. Kennedy was introduced to the gathering by Rex J. P. Hicks, president of the Victoria and Island Branch of the Canadian Authors' Association, who also cordially thanked the national secretary for his lecture.

THE CONSERVATIVE PARTY

A tragedy of the present election campaign in this province is the disappearance of the Conservative Party as an organized entity and a fighting machine. Conservatism is just as strong in the hearts of the people as it ever was but here it has been refused leadership, its organization for the purposes of the election contest has remained supine, and as a consequence, Conservatives throughout British Columbia have a great resentment in their hearts. They know the direct result in which the blame lies, and in due course, when reorganized after the coming election, steps will be taken to insure that such a betrayal of a great tradition should not be repeated. In the present circumstances one consolation that the Conservatives have is the sympathy shown to them in their predicament by the Liberal Party. That political organization in dealing with this aspect of the situation has evinced sportsmanship in carrying on its election campaign.

The Conservative Party cannot be killed by any intrigues or any dictation from any coteries of those who are supposed to be its interests. It was the executive of the Central Conservative Association of the province that passed a resolution determining that no part should be taken in the present election campaign. The various branch associations have interpreted this resolution as an instruction and have relinquished any part in the contest. One result has been the political vortex into which the province has been plunged. The course pursued by organized Conservatism has helped in promoting the entry into the election campaign of scores of candidates without political affiliations and responsible only to themselves. It has helped also in the presentation to the voters of kaleidoscopic programmes and policies some of which do not betray even the faintest glimmerings of ingenuity, and few of which pay the slightest attention to the need of economy in public affairs. At a time like this there is a heavy responsibility resting on the shoulders of those who eliminated the Conservative Party as an entity in the present campaign. It is not too much to say that they have proved themselves renegades to a faith which is an integral part of the political life of the province, as it is of the Dominion.

Mr. Stanley Baldwin in a recent speech at Birmingham recounted the principles of Conservatism and their origin and bearing upon present-day facts. Those principles are more than ever needed today, especially so that a fighting front may be presented to the Socialism which has ceased to mean even organization by democratic methods. In comment on Mr. Baldwin's speech by The London Times Socialism is described as embodying "all the salient features of European dictatorships, whether Russian or German." Mr. Baldwin calls the threat of Socialism a "proletarian Hitlerism." That threat, according to The Times, is to Conservative tradition, and "opposition to it requires and deserves all the efforts of a united Conservative Party and of all parties to whom democracy is dear."

We have had the spectacle in this province of dissension in the ranks of the Conservatives. There has been an outbreak of gratuitous party spirit. It was persisted in to such lengths that it meant official abdication of the party as an organization for participation in the present election campaign. This course has aroused unbridled passion and a determination to cleanse the party hereafter of the dissident elements who have, wittingly or unwittingly, attempted to accomplish its destruction for their own political ends. The house-cleaning that will follow the forthcoming election will lead up to a movement which will make the Conservative Party a stronger element in British Columbia's politics than it has ever been before. The task of the reorganization of that force of public thought should not be delayed following the decision of the people next month. That decision and its ultimate results will undoubtedly show the people that they have a good deal to regain by the re-establishment on reorganized lines of the party of stability which in the history of British countries is a necessary factor in all stages of reform and progress.

COLORS OF FLOWERS

Dr. R. Robinson, Waynflete Professor at Oxford University, has been discussing the chemical and structural analogies between coloring matters found in Nature and the artificial pigments made in the laboratory. What he seeks to ascertain is "why are some flowers blue, and others containing the same pigment, red?" It appears that the ready availability of artificial coloring matters, suitable for every kind of tinctorial purpose, from boot polish to finger nails, is a comparatively recent development. In the old days there were the ancient Tyrian purple, the purple of kings and the red cosmetic pigments of the natives of the Orinoco. The latter were so rare that they formed a basis of exchange. Nowadays dyes of all shades may be used. There is "freedom of the hues."

Dr. Robinson says that in the chemistry of the red, blue and violet coloring matters of flowers and blossoms the central feature of these pigments is their relation to the group of substances known as "anthocyanins," which form salts with both acids and bases. Thus, he points out, "the violet pigment cyanin, which can be isolated from blue cornflowers, red roses, and deep red dahlias, forms a blue sodium salt and a red hydrochloride. It used to be assumed that like red and blue litmus paper, the color of flowers depends on the acidity or otherwise of the cell-sap. It has been found, however, that a blue filtered extract from the blue cornflower made with distilled water is sufficiently acid to turn blue litmus red. The Professor believes that the conventional view of red flowers may be correct but special circumstances have to be invoked in the case of blue flowers. The main factors affecting flower colors have been shown to be "the nature and concentration of the anthocyanin in solution, which depends partly on the acid or alkaline substance in the fluid, and the presence or absence of other colloids, the presence or absence of other pigments, and, quite possibly, the effect of traces of iron and other metals."

STATE HEALTH INSURANCE

Practically every local candidate in the provincial campaign is advocating State Health Insurance, but not one of them has the slightest idea of what it would cost. Presumably such insurance would be both for the employee and the unemployed. That would mean that the State would have to assume the entire burden on behalf of latter, and the probability is that it would assume one-third of the burden for those who are employed. The cost would, therefore, run into many hundreds of thousands of dollars that would come out of the pockets of the taxpayers, and it is exceedingly doubtful if any real benefits would ensue in the health of the community as a whole.

It is regarded as the part of wisdom to speak in general terms in an election platform, but common sense dictates that the candidates should say what they mean by State Health Insurance. It is a paradox of the present campaign that a single candidate who advocates economy fails to propose measures whereby that economy would become impossible. Every election bait held out to the people is in the nature of political largesse which could be derived from the taxpayer's alone. State Health Insurance is one of the baits. The probability is that if a referendum were taken on this issue it would be defeated by ten to one. Most certainly it would be if the cost that would fall on the community were explained. There is no attempt, however, made at explanation. The policy is advanced simply as a shibboleth to catch votes, whereas were the project really canvassed there is no escape whatever from the conclusion that it implies added taxation, which could not, under any conceivable interpretation, mean proportionate benefits all round.

BREAKING BONDAGE

Behold a fabric made by our own hands,
Fashioned of laughter in some sunny mead;
Made of the gladdest hours we did not heed;
Or when, through tear-dimmed eyes, we watched
Time's sands

Bank slowly up, forming the golden strands
Of islands where lay buried all our hopes
Before we cut the outworn anchor ropes.
And, in despair, set sail for unknown lands
Time's sands

But, soul, take heart, and never be a thrall
To life's experience, be it good or ill.
If phantoms of the past attend thee still,
Bid them lie quiet underneath their pall.
Today we reap what yesterday was sown:
Tomorrow's harvest from fresh seed is grown.
—From "Colored Sands," by Alice Harper.

HARMONY

I try to tread in time and tune
With rhythmic marches of the moon,
And with the courses of the sun.
The whole year round from June to June.

I strive to keep in harmony
With the deep heart-throbs of the sea,
And with the streams that range and run
So swiftly and so buoyantly:

And with all voices of the earth
That make for melody and mirth—
The singing winds, the choiring birds,
The cricket chirping on the hearth:

That I in urgent time of need
May find my spirit keenly keyed,
Enabled to mount up at last
As eagle-winged as Gaiety.

—By the late Clinton Scollard in "Fantasy" (his last poem).

Light itself is a corrective. A thousand wrongs and ailments that are grown in darkness disappear, like crows and bats, before the light of day.—James A. Garfield.

The work an unknown good man has done is like a vein of water flowing hidden underground, secretly making the ground green.—Carlyle.

There would be so much harm in the giddy following the fashions, if somehow the wise could always set them.—Bovee.

Two sentiments alone suffice for man, were he to live the age of the rocks—love, and the contemplation of the Deity.—Watts.

Little joys refresh us constantly, like house-bread, and never bring disgust; and great ones, like the sugar-bread, briefly, and then satiety.—Richter.

Note and Comment

By R. B. D.

Members with fortunes, humors turn with times,
Tangle with books, and principles with time.
—Pope.
No month is a sentence, as cure month is none.
—Churchill.

Notwithstanding the lexicographic definition of politics as the science of government, modern politics is not a science at all. It is a political party game. Modern Canadian politicians are not over-scrupulous. They are more interested in playing tricks than searching for and stating truths. The Liberal party of Canada, which for three years has been wrapped in a cloud of gloom, has burst through into what it believes to be the splendor of glorious sunshine. The Federal Liberal party has won three by-elections, two of them in remote parts of the country and one in the Province of Quebec, where the voters still believe in the tradition of the great Laurier.

It is not an unusual thing for a government party to lose by-elections. In times like these it would be an unusual thing for a government party to win a by-election. Still the Liberal party cannot be blamed for professing to see a ray of light in the encircling gloom and extracting a gleam of comfort from the results of the elections. We remember a veteran director of a newspaper stating that he preferred being on the side of the opposition to being on the side of the government, because it was much easier in his job to be on the attacking than on the defending side. That is an advantage possessed by the leader of an opposition at any time; it is a greater advantage than usual at the present time.

Rt. Hon. William Lyon Mackenzie King has never been too scrupulous as a politician, and he could hardly be expected to forego the advantage the existing state of public opinion provides for his methods of attacking the policies of the Government. Mr. King says the depression in Canada is due to high tariffs, and that if he were in power he would remove the depression by reducing tariffs and entering into reciprocal trade relations with the United States. He wants freer trade with all nations and between all nations. Mr. King if he were in power might reduce or wipe out all Canadian tariffs, but he would have no power to reduce or wipe out the tariffs imposed by other countries.

Any unscrupulous political demagogue might tell a simple people in the height of a political campaign that he would negotiate a treaty of trade and reciprocity with the United States, but a sophisticated statesman like Mackenzie King would be moved to ask: "would he get a treaty?" In the constituencies of Mackenzie, Yamasaka and Restigouche the principal products are of the soil or the sea. The voters of those constituencies swallowed the bait so cunningly and cynically dangled before them by the Leader of the Opposition. They had visions of access to United States markets for their products. Therefore the Rt. Hon. the Leader of the Opposition must be laughing in his sleeve today as he reads the news at his country estate. The United States Government, which is raising duties against all imports, is limiting agricultural production, and destroying domestic animals in the belief that the prices of farm products can be raised, is going to be asked to remove or lower tariff protection in order that Canadian agricultural products may enter and compete with native products. The utter absurdity of the proposition should be sufficiently evident to even the densest bucolic mind.

The above is merely one sample of the humbug employed by Mr. King for the purpose of deluding the people and winning elections. But it was not the only kind of humbug preached by the power-hungry and unscrupulous Leader of the Opposition. Mr. King quoted statistics cunningly and copiously for the purpose of showing a decline in the trade of this country. He was not sufficiently candid to rectify figures showing the tremendous decline in the foreign trade of every country in the world during the depression period. He did not point out that the relative reduction in the trade of Canada has been less than corresponding reductions in all countries. He did not state that the business conditions in Canada today are much healthier than the circumstances in the United States, even under the stimulus of N.I.R.A.

Rt. Hon. William Lyon Mackenzie King vindictively attacked the policies of Imperial Preferential Trade adopted by the Imperial Conference at Ottawa, which have since been consummated and have resulted in great and growing developments of trade between Canada and Great Britain and between Canada and her sister Dominions. The Leader of the Opposition said if he were again attained power he would scrap all the provisions of the Imperial Conference, abolish preferential trade agreements and seek the wider markets of all the world.

THE COLONIST IN LONDON
The Colonist may be procured at the International News Stand of Messrs. Selfridge & Co., Oxford Street.

That is, he would sacrifice all the benefits which had been gained and seek advantages which are unattainable. There is today not a nation in the world which has not discarded the fallacies of free trade and adopted the principles of protection. If the trade of Canada is to be made wider yet, that condition must be attained through the medium of preferential trade.

'Slams and Salaams'

By H. T. M.

"Hey you pesky little woman! Next time, I'll wait till you're halfway through it—and then slam it on your bustle!" . . . and that's what I long to about at the deplorable number of pert, wooden-faced, equally little women, in this burg, that let you rip your pants on a weighing-machine, drop your parcel of electric bulbs, and smash a couple of glass showcases in your mercurial dash to politely open a drug store door for them, and reward you with a sniff of disapproval and a poke in the eye with an umbrella!

If women wish men to be even half way polite, they should at least show their appreciation with a more or less meaningless "Ahem!" or anything, in fact, that might give the impression that they have at least noticed the ordeal, and are not necessarily annoyed by it.

I've somehow or other been "hoisting and lowering the portcullis" on behalf of various strange and evidently transient little women—and been damned well snubbed for my "gallantry!" So, just at the moment, something quite venomous within me, fathers a mean urge to lurk behind drug store doors, and maybe make a little jam for the Winter. Just to sort of nip them here and there, as it were—or, can't you hear them squealing?

A recent, rather Russian-flavored and "C.C.P." letter to this paper runs, "With the persistence of a parrot, you (that's this evidently bird-like journal) continue to assert that there is an indistinguishable difference between the tenets of the C.C.P. and Communism."

Humph, sez we! "Persistent Parrots, eh?" And "humph," once more! Just suppose that's true? And just suppose these editorial remarks are literally ad hoc and a flap with mad "persistent parrots"? Parrots are fine, amiable and intrepid sort of birds, and if "persistent," then so would the better! Surely "persistent parrots" are as excusable as stuffed ones—or, don't you see, or hear from as many of those, as we do? (For the sake of your worthy and most amenable souls, we sincerely hope not!)

Apocryph of that most memorable Telford-McGeer meeting in Vancouver, it may not be altogether witless to publish what the adroit and supremely agile Butterfield has to say concerning it.

A lot of people got the idea that at that most memorable gathering of the greater minds, that the possibly fortuitous spoutings of the astute Mr. McGeer were received with almost tomb-like acquiescence; whereas the sagacious and delicious utterances of the erudite Telford were applauded in the good old rafter-splitting manner. But possibly the sulphuric Butterfield throws a brighter light on this with regard to the Telford has at last achieved his life's ambition. He has induced Gerry McGeer to get up on a public platform and debate with him the great questions of the day. It was an impressive spectacle. Ten thousand people filled the seats of the Arena; they sat on the floor when the chairs gave out; they hung like flies from the rafters.

But it was all no use. The good Doktor had apparently waited so long for his great moment that when it came he couldn't use it. Gerry went to bat first. He was allowed an hour. It was an hour of stern facts delivered in the best debating style, a style that admits argument but does not usually include either bombast or the soap-box tactics of the thunder-pumper. He laced his little hour to the full with wisdom.

The good Doktor, with an hour and a quarter to fill, devoted himself to whooping up the cheers of the faithful, talked so fast that it stunned one, dragged out all the old hoary platform tricks that were discarded when I was young, filled his work with damatory references to details of the doings of the late Government and then ran out of breath and information at the same moment and twenty minutes ahead of his allotted time.

American Awards—Among the Pacific Coast awards to Americans by the International Fisheries Exhibition are the following: Alaska Commercial Company, San Francisco, for collection of sealions, silver medal; Oregon Packing Company, Portland, for general exhibit of canned fish, silver medal; J. O. Meier & Company, Brookfield, W.T., for salmon cans, silver medal; Outcrop Packing Company, San Francisco, for general exhibit of prepared fish, bronze medal.

House Burned—On Saturday the farmhouse of A. Smiley, near East Wellington, was burned to the ground, a dispatch from Nanaimo states. Nearly all the contents were destroyed. The fire originated from a stove pipe placed through the roof. A quantity of household furniture and effects were destroyed. The fire moving so rapidly as to prevent their removal.

Thanksgiving Day—Hon. Mr. Smith, in answer to an inquiry, was advised by telegram yesterday, from Mr. John A. Macdonald, that November 8 had been set aside as Thanksgiving Day to be observed throughout the Dominion of Canada. Personal notice will be given tomorrow for its observance in this province.

Free Food—The Nanaimo Free Press in a recent editorial strongly advocated the creation of Nanaimo as an independent customs port. This idea is rapidly evolving through the U.I.-Island centre, and something may materialize, experts say.

FRENCH SENATOR DEAD

ANGERS, France, Oct. 26 (CP).—Ferdinand Bougere, member of the French Senate, died here, yesterday, aged sixty-eight.

Mayor Is Outrivaling Gretna Green's Smithy

Gretna Green's matrimonial blacksmith has nothing on Mayor David Leeming when it comes to providing bridegrooms for amorous spinsters. When the City Hall closed at 5 o'clock yesterday evening, no less than six applicants offered themselves as husbands for a Victoria woman and two Scotch lassies, who have appealed to the mayor to find them spouses.

The Victoria woman, who has property of her own and a good job, seems to be most in demand, although the applicants said they would not reject the two Scotch lassies if their suit for Miss Victoria failed.

Unfortunately the Scotch girls have applied elsewhere to make sure they will get plenty of applicants from whom they can pick suitable husbands. It was learned yesterday that the mayor of Saint John, N.B., had received a similar letter from the two Glasgow "gentle women" as was received by Mayor Leeming.

In their case, only industrious bachelors may apply, while in the case of the Victoria woman there is no such limitations. This probably is why she is more in demand, the mayor's secretary suggested.

FINDS ASSAULT WAS COMMITTED

Judge Lampman, However,
Says Jean Bowers Was
Heartless in Her Action

Judge P. S. Lampman, in handing down judgment in the action for $1,000 damages, which Mrs. Jean Bowers brought against John Jardine, while unable to arrive at a satisfactory conclusion as to where the honors were to be awarded in the early part of the conflict, decided that Mr. Jardine committed an assault when he tried to prevent Mrs. Bowers from using the telephone. He, however, expressed little sympathy with the plaintiff in her telephoning to the home of the defendant, which he described as a heartless act on her part, and he assessed the damages at only $500.

His Honor reviewed the ill-feelings that seemed to have been created between the parties to the action. He said: "The plaintiff is obviously a powerful young (though so old that she did not want to disclose her age) woman who weighs 155 pounds, and there can be no doubt that in a physical encounter she can use her powers to good effect. The defendant is an old man in his seventy-ninth year, and from his attitude as a witness I have no doubt that when worked up a bit his tongue would run away with him and he would do things that would be a severe strain on his heart, which is not in a good state."

NEED NOT FEAR
"However, he should not be depressed about his heart, as he came through the battle (with which he now has to deal) pretty well for an old man matched against a pretty lively opponent of the opposite sex."

His Honor recalled the allegations which each of them was supposed to have used against the other, and while both in turn denied, in the attitude of mind in which they met at the door of the home of Mrs. Bowers, it was "inevitable that they would come to grips."

Judge Lampman is at a loss to discover exactly what took place in the early part of the encounter, but when it comes to the telephone incident there is, he said, pretty much of an agreement between the parties.

"During a lull," says the judgment, "plaintiff said she would telephone to defendant's house and tell his wife that he was there making trouble, and defendant asked her not to do so, as his wife was ill, and he told her he would not let her do so if he had any strength left, and he grabbed the telephone from her hand."

ASSAULT COMMITTED
The court found that an assault was committed in the putting of his hands on plaintiff to prevent her telephoning. It was plaintiff's right to use the telephone if she desired. He adds, however, "I am inclined to think defendant was whipped into submission at the time he tried to force the plaintiff from the telephone."

"As to who began the laying on of hands, I am unable to say," stated His Honor, "and as to the principal part of the plaintiff's case, I am of the opinion that she must fail."

In regard to the telephone incident, the judgment says: "She would be entitled to exemplary damages if it were not for the fact that she (the defendant) acted under great provocation. His wife is old and he did not want to get a shock, as he said, would he if plaintiff telephoned her. Plaintiff knew all this, and although she said she did not do so, she persisted and she did not do so, she had time to cool off a bit, and her act was heartless. Nothing but spite prompted her to telephone, and she is entitled to only small damages, and I fix the amount at $500."

Police yesterday were asked to search for a man, who disappeared from the Salvation Army Hotel on Johnson Street on Tuesday, leaving behind two strange notes. His name is believed to be J. Stephenson, and he is described as sixty-five years of age, 130 pounds, slim build, grey hair, bald on top, and wearing working clothes when last seen.

A check was made on some of his friends, but police so far have been unable to trace him, and apprehension is felt for his safety.

In one note he said: "Nothing wrong about name, mother's maiden name and I loved her dearly. She left and did not owe a cent. I leave the same. Goodbye to all, hoping you do the best for humanity."

The man had been on city relief, and apparently lack of employment occasioned his last statement in the first note, police said.

In the second note, he gave a name, believed to be his real name. The note, however, was somewhat incoherent and police are not sure whether the name contained in this note is actually that of the missing man. This note in part reads as follows:

"John Robert Haworth, born from 1864 to 1868, assume name J. Stephenson, and if the city is anymore expense for me Miss ——— owes me $242 for the cost of 1931 over."

The tenor of the letter was resented by city aldermen, who took the view that the council had made every effort to meet the request of the committee. The mayor has upheld the decision of the council to invite the delegation to be heard by the public works committee, which comprises the whole council, this afternoon.

A Northern farm hand went to work for a Texas rancher. There had been an unusually long drought in the region and everyone on the ranch was hoping for rain. One day it did start to sprinkle, and the farm hand, to show his delight, proceeded to dance in the rain.

"Come in out of that rain!" the rancher shouted.

"Oh, I don't mind these few drops," replied the man.

"Who cares about that?" belittled the farmer. "We want every bit of that rain to fall on Texas!"

Further evidence of support for the annual Poppy Day campaign was shown yesterday in a letter received by Commander C. H. R. Slingsby, chairman of the Remembrance Day committee from Mayor David Leeming.

Mayor Leeming stated in his letter that the work being carried on at the Red Cross Workshops was undoubtedly a great asset to the community and of the greatest benefit to many who are suffering from physical handicaps as a result of Charles W. Band, president of the Maple Leaf Milling Company, of Toronto, and head of the Canadian Bakeries, Limited, will be a visitor to the city today, where he will stay for a short time with Mrs. Band.

Mr. Band, who is one of the big milling men of Canada, started business in 1885 with James Carruthers & Company, the well-known grain export merchants, and had charge of the Toronto office of this firm until 1914, when he went to New York and remained there until 1919.

He is president of the Hedley-Shaw Milling Company and the Campbell Milling Company; vice-president of the Canada Bread Company and the Dominion Bakeries, Limited, as well as a member of the Toronto Board of Trade.

SHAKESPEARE GREAT FORCE

Professor T. Larsen Delivers
Interesting Lecture on Elizabethan Poet

"Shakespeare was not Elizabethan; he was human and universal. His works have been translated into many languages, and today he is still one of the greatest forces in the world after over 300 years," declared Professor Thorolf Larsen, M.A., speaking at Victoria College last night before the University Extension Association. Professor Larsen, who is a member of the faculty of the University of British Columbia, drew an audience so large that it filled the big lecture-room and many were forced to stand in the hallway throughout his address.

DIFFICULT SUBJECT
Professor Larsen stated that because entire libraries had been written on the subject of Shakespeare, it was somewhat difficult to know just what to deal with. The present age, he said, would go down in history as the most remarkable in Shakespearean criticism, for in attacking this apparently inexhaustible subject, new discoveries were being made continually and new truths being found in his works.

In dealing with certain phases of Shakespeare's work, the professor declared that one of his most outstanding characteristics was his fidelity to the superficial facts of life. Actually, he said, his work was the very reverse of literary, it simply portrayed life itself.

SHAKESPEARE CLASSICAL

"The effect of Shakespeare's work is strictly classical and not romantic," asserted Professor Larsen.

Sour Stomach, Gas

Hamilton, Ont.—"I was very much discouraged. I could not enjoy a meal, because of the bad after-effects of my stomach, gas and indigestion pains. I lost weight, became nervous and slept poorly. Wm. Pashinski of 491 Kenilworth Ave., N. I. bought three bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and almost immediately my digestion was better. I enjoyed my meals without the former ill effects, my appetite improved and I felt so much better. I cannot praise it enough."

Communists Make First Move of Intimidation

Heckler Brands Rev. Michael Billester as a Liar While He Tells of Existing Circumstances in Russia—Large Audience Aroused

Indications of a planned Communist demonstration against the determination of Rev. Michael Billester, Russian missionary, to "tell the truth about Russia," were evident at the meeting in the Shrine Auditorium here last night when the crusader against the Communist doctrine addressed a large audience in spite of written threats against his personal liberty if he persisted in holding the meeting scheduled.

The tense situation arose when a heckler, at the closing of the meeting, jumped to his feet and called the speaker a liar. Nearly five hundred persons immediately clamored for the removal of the unidentified man, and a squad of police moved toward him as protection should trouble arise. Rev. J. B. Howell, from the chair, brought the meeting to order, saying that "no man will be removed from this hall." Mr. Billester waved the insinuation aside with a smile.

CHALLENGE SPEAKER
In answering many questions directed by the man in the audience, who, prior to the accusation, became disrespectful, Mr. Billester said that he was a "Red." The man objected and challenged the speaker to prove certain statements regarding the existence of Communism in Russia, Soviet Russia, and starvation there. While the speaker attempted to answer, the heckler shouted his insinuation, and shortly after left the hall. The meeting then concluded, with Mr. Billester repeating that he would give another address tonight in the Shrine Hall on conditions in Russia.

As a number of other members of the audience left the hall, they were overheard to say that they would run the speaker out of town, yet, "When an Anglo-Saxon can tolerate Karl Marx atheism, he is a cuckoo," asserted the speaker, in response to a question from the audience.

POOLEY FLAG ONLY FURLED

Union of Political Factors Necessary for Crisis, Candidate States

"I have been accused of hauling down my flag. My answer is that I have simply furlled it, the same as I did in 1917, when the exigencies of the times made a Union government necessary," Hon. R. H. Pooley, Attorney-General, declared in an election speech at Metchem last night. He was supported on the platform by James H. Beatty, former member of the Legislature. Mr. Pooley cited the experiences in Great Britain, Australia, South Africa and other units of the British Empire that had adopted the Union form of government during the present economic crisis. In each instance, national emergencies had been faced with a united front, and things accomplished that were putting these countries back on their feet. The same had been done by the Province of Manitoba, and this province, as well on the way to financial recovery.

SAYS UNION INEVITABLE

"That is why I furl my flag, and I say right now that you are going to have a Union government after November 2, whether you like it or not," the speaker declared. Dealing with relief, he said it was true that the allowances had not been as great as those in the past, but he had the country been able to afford it, but no other factor in the Many amusing hands and situations arose in the recent individual Masters' Tournament played in New York City. Probably the funniest situation of them all occurred in the second day's play, wherein a penalty called against a South player finally became the cause for his getting a top score on the board. Good psychology, followed by a good guess in the play of the hand, enabled the South player in the hand below to emerge from a bad situation with flying colors.

Pioneers of City Meet At Delightful Affair

Directors and Management of David Spencer, Ltd., Entertain Nearly 400 Guests at Diamond Jubilee Tea—Oldest Families Represented

Panned to life by the amiable breeze of reminiscence that circled about the hospitable tables filled with pioneers and descendants of pioneers of the city, the embers of happy memories sent an unusually cheerful glow through David Spencer's big dining and tea rooms yesterday afternoon. The occasion was the reception and "At Home" given by the company's directors and management to the pioneers of Victoria, this being part of the firm's Diamond Jubilee celebration. A most happy inspiration the idea proved to be, for although the invitation was in the impersonal form of an announcement in the local press, fully four hundred guests were present, representing practically every senior family of the southern part of the island.

Both the main dining-room and tea-lounge were a festive look, the former having as its central ornament the magnificent five-tiered birthday cake studded with the sixty candles emblematic of the six decades the occasion celebrated, and the second being attractive with bowls of pink and lemon-colored asters. The pillars flanking the table on which the birthday cake stood on its silver maple leaves and oak, and on the far-side of the room was the long buffet from which tea was served, between the steaming urns bowls of single coral and gold asters being placed. Guests sat either at tables or less formally in groups where they could move about easily and exchange greetings. The whole atmosphere of the affair was delightfully unconventional and friendly, as the animated buzz of conversation testified.

Red Cross Society Has Tea Party

NANAIMO, Oct. 26.—Canadian Red Cross members and their friends entertained a record-breaking Wednesday afternoon at a charming event which took the form of a country girl tea and musicale held at the home of Mrs. F. S. Stewart, 1324 Main Street, on Wednesday afternoon. In addition to the society's activities.

All afternoon a constant stream of visitors kept the house busy and freely patronized contests which helped to swell the funds. The charming reception rooms were beautifully decorated with golden chrysanthemums being used as a centre ornament for the tea table on a mirrored base, flanked on either side by green layers and silver holders. Mrs. Cunliffe received the guests wearing a lovely gown of silver brown and cream lace. Mrs. W. W. Lewis assisted for the society. Little Sylvia Bradwell opened the door. Miss Grace Modell and Miss Lena Atkinson had charge of a record-breaking musical programme. Mrs. Calder and Mrs. Roper were contest drawing winners. Mrs. John Hunt, Mrs. Fred Smith, Mrs. Charles Crawford and Mrs. J. S. O'Neil presided at the tea urns. Mr. J. Leslie Reynolds and Mrs. Barrie Goult efficiently accompanied the soloists. Little Winona Hunter and Betty Seggie danced.

The soloists were Miss Gladys Hindmarch, Mrs. A. Mawer, Mrs. William Brown, Mrs. Arthur Wittingham, Mrs. F. L. Reynolds, Miss E. Dobson, Mrs. W. P. McDonald and Mrs. Barrie Goult. Mrs. J. Leslie Reynolds recited. Mrs. W. W. Fashley, Mrs. Manson, Mrs. Mortimer, Mrs. McCarthy, Mrs. S. Adamson and Mrs. W. Roper.

"My advice to you, Colonel, is to go through the movements of driving without using the ball," said the golf instructor.
"My dear fellow," answered the Colonel, "that's precisely the trouble I'm wanting to overcome!"

Jolly Dance Is Given by Moose Order

A most delightful dance was held in the A.O.F. Hall last evening, under the auspices of the Loyal Order of Moose, to commemorate Mooseheart Day. There were about 200 dancers and a programme of up-to-date dance numbers played by a popular four-piece orchestra was much enjoyed. In addition to the modern dances, a number of old-time minuets, barn dances, etc., were included and thoroughly approved of by the guests. Supper was served in the banquet hall downstairs, where the tables were gay with chrysanthemums and Autumn leaves. Those responsible for the success of the dance were the following members of the committee: Mrs. A. Spouse, Mrs. J. Pearce, Mrs. Ellemore, Mr. W. Kettle, Mr. A. Spouse, Mr. W. Fawcett, Mr. H. Duffield and Mr. F. Moulton.

Letters were received from the B.E.S.I. asking for patronage for its ball, also from the Amputation Club with a like request for patronage for its dance, both events taking place on November 10. Commander C. R. Singsby, chairman of the Mooseheart Day committee, was asking for aid and support in connection with Poppy Day. Mrs. A. W. Mackenzie will be glad to receive any names of members or friends willing to tag on the occasion.

Mrs. P. E. Corby reported for the Friendly Help and Social Service, and Mrs. E. Shanks, reporting for the Standard Bearers, stated that there was an excellent attendance at the semi-annual meeting of Provincial Chapter at Nanaimo on October 18. Mrs. H. K. Prior gave the financial statement and Mrs. George Miles reported on Child and Family Welfare. As an outcome of this report, it was decided to again carry on with the Christmas hamper as in past years.

CLOTHING NEED
An appeal was received from Mrs. F. F. Beckett for warm clothing for needy cases, especially clothing for women living in outlying districts. Mrs. Booth also appealed for woolies for children at the Solarium.

Mrs. Genge gave an interesting report on the semi-annual meeting of Provincial Chapter at Nanaimo on October 18. Mrs. H. K. Prior gave the financial statement and Mrs. George Miles reported on Child and Family Welfare. As an outcome of this report, it was decided to again carry on with the Christmas hamper as in past years.

Y.P.S. News

GRACE LUTHERAN
The Luther League of Grace Lutheran Church held its regular meeting recently. The president, Luther Jensen, was re-elected by a unanimous ballot to serve for another term. The following officers were also re-elected: Secretary, Christine Schmeis; vice-president, Fred Loeffler; treasurer, Elvin Ojwer. Kathleen Neuman and Luther Jensen have been appointed to the executive committee of the Pacific Northwest District Luther League, which met for its thirteenth annual convention in Victoria about a month ago, to serve as missionary secretary and life service secretary, respectively. The local league is planning a Halloween party for November 1. They will be entertained by Misses Fagerberg at their home on Wilkeson Road.

Anglican Young People

ST. PAUL'S
The girls of St. Paul's A.Y.P.A. entertained the boys on Wednesday evening, in the parish hall, at a Halloween party. They provided much entertainment and an enjoyable evening was spent. The young men members are asked to support a young men's Bible class being conducted by Mr. Barclay, who has been kind enough to give his valuable time to this group, and it is worthy of more support than it is receiving at the present time. These classes are held on Sunday mornings at 9:45 a.m. The branch will hold a Guy Fawkes dance on November 3 at 9 p.m. in the parish hall.

ST. BARNABAS
A special meeting of the St. Barnabas A.Y.P.A. was held in the schoolroom on Monday. Kathleen Abbott gave a report of the dance, which showed that it was a success, both financially and socially. A donation was given to the church to help pay the fuel bill. Cedric Read read the by-laws for the badminton club, which were adopted. The members sent their best wishes to Patsy Phipps, who has been ill for the past few weeks, and all hoped to see her soon. Mr. James Ozenade made mention of the installation of the local council officers, and the talk by the Dominion conference delegates from Victoria on Friday, November 10. The meeting adjourned at 10 p.m., after which Rev. F. W. Weaver, rector of St. Alban's Church, gave an address on China, and also showed interesting views of Shanghai.

What Today Means

"SCORPIO"

If October 27 is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 10 to 11:15 a.m., from 2 to 4 p.m. and from 8 to 9:30 p.m. The danger periods are from 7:45 to 8:30 a.m., from 8 to 8:45 p.m. and from 8 to 9:15 p.m.
For no particular reason at all, you will probably feel inclined to start the day with a song; you will feel carefree, happy and hopeful. In this frame of mind you will tackle problems which seemed to offer no solution the day previous, and you will solve them. Turn down any chance to gamble in business or in any other way, for though you will feel the urge to play long shots, the odds will be against you.

The child born on this October 27 will probably be pretty much of a tease with a mean streak in him that will crop out at times. He will not feel at ease with animals nor they with him; this should and probably will be overcome. He will be inclined to run a good deal about his health and will miss few of the usual children's ailments.

If October 27 is the date of your birth, you are more than likely a person whose thoughts rest pretty much on himself. You are inclined to be introspective, though not in a morbid way, and you are certainly self-centred. Your favorite topic of conversation is yourself. When talking much about it, you feel that all are interested in what you are doing, thinking and saying. As a matter of fact, you do get around a lot and meet many interesting people, so that your listeners are not unwilling to lend an ear for a time at least. You can be very much of a bore, however. You are particular, striking in appearance; this is true of the women in particular, for coupled with a natural grace and charm they have good taste in clothes and wear them admirably.

Born on October 27, if you can forget yourself long enough to take a sincere and deep interest in some important problem of the day, or phase of business, you will succeed in making quite a name for yourself—speak well, choose your words carefully and exhibit great tact, especially in trying situations. You put people at their ease, for you are a friendly nature. All barriers are dropped right at the start. People never forget you. You will need the right mate to help you succeed.

Born on October 27, if you can forget yourself long enough to take a

HOSPITAL MEETING

DUNCAN, Oct. 26.—The W. A. to the Cowichan Hospital Association held their monthly meeting at the nurses' home, the president, Mrs. H. P. Prevost, occupying the chair. Reports were received on the jam shoveler and tag day held recently, and a further sum of $150 was voted to the association towards paying off the debt on the caseroom. Estimates were given on the cost of improving the sewing-room. It was decided to have a new floor put in and to buy new curtains, an expenditure of about $20. Plans for the annual hospital bazaar on December 18 were considered. The various women's organizations of the district will co-operate as usual to make it a success. Tea was served after the meeting by Miss M. E. Wilson, Miss Lucy Kingston and Miss Archibald.

"I've decided what I'm going to do," said Edgar. "I'm going to find myself a nice little wife. I'll have a cozy little home, well-cooked meals, my slippers will be all ready for me when I get home at night, my pipe will be handy, and peace and contentment will reign for the rest of my days. Don't you think it a great idea?"

"You never ought to marry, old chap," said his married friend.
"Why not?" asked Edgar.
"Well, when a man has a beautiful dream like that he shouldn't take the risk of waking up," but in the cynical one.

MARINE, RAIL and AIR

WHY CHARTS ARE NEEDED

H. D. Parizeau, Chief Hydrographer on Coast, Tells Club About Surveys

In tracing the history of hydrographic survey work in Canada, H. D. Parizeau, head of this important work on the Pacific Coast, gave some very interesting information to the Rotary Club, yesterday, with respect to the improvements that had been brought into effect in connection with charting of Canadian waters. He was accorded a hearty vote of appreciation. Alderman Walter Loney voicing the sentiments of the club.

Before concluding, the speaker offered a short course in hydrographic survey work for laymen. He explained that base lines had to be established, and for certain points had to be exactly located. This had been done for the Pacific coast, which was employed on this work for a long time on the British Columbia coast. Triangulation was therefore possible from these points in getting exact locations.

Mr. Parizeau said it was necessary to establish the coast line. In the old days this was done by the arduous task of following the shore and mapping the line. Now aerial photography came into the work and gave them outstanding points from which the remainder could be established. There had to be an accurate location of mountain peaks and outstanding features along the coast, so that the mariner would readily pick up his position.

TAKE SOUNDINGS
From the coast out for a distance the depth of water was ascertained by taking soundings from small craft at regular distances, and the recording of this. The general character of the land often afforded a clue to the character of the bottom of the sea off shore, and between the soundings lines, wherever it was suspected there might be shoal water, tests were made.

Outside of this the large boats were used, and Mr. Parizeau included in the description he offered what was done with sweeps, which were composed of wire extending from a few hundred feet to five miles in length, in locating submerged peaks in the water.

DONE BY ECHOES

For the deeper waters now they had sensitive apparatus, which, by means of echoes recorded by the mechanism installed on board, giving the time for the return of the echo, this indicating the exact depth of water.

The speaker said that Canada was awakened to the need of the hydrographic work by the loss of a passenger steamer, the Asia, in Georgian Bay, in 1882, when out of 100 persons on board only two were saved and the wreck never located. It was decided then to have a survey of the Great Lakes, which at first was supposed to take five years, but which was still in progress. Various other surveys in addition to that on the Pacific, including Hudson Bay, the St. Lawrence River and the Atlantic coast, were referred to.

On the Pacific, not more than about 15 per cent of the coast had been surveyed along modern lines. The surveys were of inestimable advantages not only to the shipping, but to the fishery, which had been heavily in nets, and to other lines of industry, including the tourist yachtmanship and the local small boat navigators.

STEAMSHIP COMPANY AND AIR LINES MAKE WORKING AGREEMENT

Perfection of a traffic arrangement between the Alaska Steamship Company and Pan-American Airways, Inc., with its Alaska Division, known as Pacific-Alaska Airways, Inc., has just been announced by the steamship company in Seattle.

This means the system of Pan-American Airways will represent the Alaska Steamship Company in all cities touched in Eastern United States and throughout Central and South America, as well as in the interior of Alaska through Pacific-Alaska Airways. This agreement is reciprocal, so that the steamship company will represent the air transportation systems in all the cities where the Alaska Steamship Line maintains offices.

REFUSES TO PAY TEACHERS' BONUS

Ladysmith Mayor Will Not Sign
Cheques in Excess of Fixed
Salaries

LADYSMITH, Oct. 25.—President T. Byatt, of the Ladysmith Athletic Club, was a delegate of one this evening, before the city council at the regular meeting. Towards the end of last year, the council had granted the newlyformed athletic club part of the vacant Mutual Trading premises, on Gadsden Street, as a club house. More than $40 of city money had been expended to place the building in a safe condition, and no revenue had been received from the club. There was some uncertainty as to the terms arranged, but the council minute book was turned back and the entry was read to the effect that the building was granted on condition that the club would undertake to pay taxes for the year 1933.

Some of the aldermen were strongly critical of a further expenditure for assistance, when the club had made no effort to meet its incurred obligation to the city. It was finally decided to leave the matter to a joint meeting of the building committee and the club executive, for a report for the next council meeting.

LIBRARY ROOM
Answering a request from the Ladysmith Public Library committee, the council formally granted a large room in the City Hall as a future library premises. A communication from the board of school trustees, commenting on the starting of a senior matriculation class, while giving some financial particulars relating to the proposed payment of a $10 monthly bonus to each of two teachers for extra work involved, raised a mild flurry in the council chamber. Mayor Mason remarked he had refused to sign cheques for the extra amounts, until the matter was thoroughly debated. Teachers' cheques were already set and the move looked like a salary increase, whether it was called a bonus or anything else.

CRITICIZE TRUSTEES
The school trustees came in for considerable criticism from several of the aldermen for their lack of co-operation with the council. Alderman Dady, who is also a school trustee, rose to the defence of the board, and blamed the council for much of the fault. Alderman Vandecasteyen moved that a joint meeting of the council and the board be held to discuss all outstanding differences with a view to arriving at amicable arrangements, and this suggestion was endorsed.

Members in the volunteer fire brigade who are employed steadily are sometimes on different shifts and out of the city when the fire alarm sounds. As a result, with ten men in the department, the fire-fighting machinery is sometimes understaffed, and to add to the safety factor, the fire wardens asked permission to add two additional men to the crew of volunteers. Permission was granted, and the purchase of considerable new equipment was recommended.

VICTORIA MUSICIANS GIVE FINE CONCERT AT SHAWNIGAN LAKE

Three talented members of Victoria's musical circles gave their services on Tuesday evening at a concert given in the S.L.A.A. Hall, under the auspices of the Malahat Chapter, I.O.D.E. Mrs. Tyrwhitt Drake, Miss Irene Bick and Miss E. Dumbarton, at the piano, delighted a small but most appreciative audience with their numbers.
The proceeds of this concert, made possible by the donated services of the artists, will help to swell the chapter's funds, which will be taxed, as usual, by the Christmas child welfare work.

"F.P." BILLED AT CAPITOL TOMORROW

"F.P." One of the screen's most unusual contributions, comes to the Capitol Theatre tomorrow. Dramatizing the possibility of an island floating in the middle of the Atlantic for the aid of trans-oceanic flyers, the story depicts romance and adventure in one of the strangest settings of film fiction. Amid the natural dangers of the sea and the created dangers of evil men, the plot runs through the gamut of action, drama, romance and sacrifice.
Conrad Veidt, one of the most widely known screen stars in the world, heads the cast in the role of an aviator, successful in everything except in winning the girl he loves. Leslie Fenton and Jill Esmond are co-featured with Veidt in the cast, which also includes George Merritt and Donald Calhoun.

TRIBUTE PAID ITO BY NEW YORK PAPER

"Miechie Ito, whose mastery of technique and projection of an individual style in the dance made him one of the most interesting figures now before the public, gave the second recital of his series at the John Golden Theatre last evening. The auditorium was crowded and all of the programme was followed by his devotees with breathless interest. His presentations are marvels of spontaneity, of spiritual and physical acrobatics. His costumes are beautiful and appropriate. As a dancer Ito is remarkable for a highly constructive

BIG CROWD IS FILMED

More Than 1,500 Persons
Turn Out for Prize Fight
Scenes at Willows

More than 1,500 persons turned out for the "shooting" of the big ring fight scenes in "The Crimson West" motion picture staged in the Horse Show Building on Wednesday night by the Commonwealth Productions, Ltd.
While props were being set up, and lights arranged, George Tate and Joseph Jennings fought a three-round preliminary bout, after which the first round of the fight between Nick Stuart and Charles Stuart, whom he knocks out in the picture, was filmed.

DIRECTS CROWD
When Kenneth J. Bishop, producer, selected Robert Hill as director, he made no mistake if his direction can be taken as any criterion. He had the crowd with him and shot some fine fight crowd scenes, and secured some splendid sound tracks of the crowd jeering at a foul blow, and cheering as Nick Stuart staged a comeback to knock out his opponent.

The audience was treated to some of the strange jargon of the motion picture industry as the chief electrician shouted "hit 'em" and "give 'em a rest," orders to his man on the switch board.
The shrill whistle of the director brought immediate silence when Mr. Hill wished to tell the story leading up to the next scene, so that he could get the proper reaction from the crowd.

Makes Presentation To Douglas Flintoff

A special presentation in recognition of his services in preparing a feature reel of moving pictures was made to Douglas Flintoff at the Bohemian Nights concert held by the Hudson's Bay Company employees, on Wednesday.
The films were made at the annual picnic held by the Beaver Club, and were shown for the first time to a capacity audience at the Crystal Palace.

Mr. Wilkinson, secretary of the Beaver Club, made the presentation, amid tumultuous applause from the audience.
As the old farm laborer said of his questionable brew: "If it 'ad bin better we wouldn't a' got it and if it 'ad bin any worse we couldn't a' drink it. So it's just right."

Objection against Saanich high school fees was voiced by E. C. Warren and C. H. Underwood on behalf of the Saanich Ward Two Non-Political Ratepayers' Association at a Saanich School Board meeting Wednesday. Chairman P. V. Hobbs advised the delegation the board will continue its policy of charging $10 a year for students until the end of 1933.

Mr. Warren said that if fees were to be charged, they should start at fifteen years, and not sixteen as at present. "This thing is causing plenty of hardship to the general ratepayer," he stated.

Questioning the board as to why the fee was instituted, Mr. Warren was informed that it was charged not only as an economy basis, but to make the schools more self-supporting.

Trustee A. E. Hull declared he was in favor of the fees because of the principle involved. "It is a matter of making those who can afford to pay, pay," he said.

"Are you in favor of sacrificing children's educations on principle?" asked Mr. Warren.

"No child needs to stay away from school," asserted the trustee.

He pointed out that if parents would advise the board of their inability to pay, the children would be placed in the high school.

Mr. Underwood substantiated statements made by Mr. Warren.

EMPIRE RUGBY FOOTBALL TOURNEY PROPOSED

Few Changes to Be Made in Line-Up of Toronto Maple Leafs

Practically Same Team Will Be Used This Season by Manager Conny Smythe—King Clancy and Levinsky to Be on Defence Again

TORONTO, Oct. 26 (CP).—When you have a team that has proven itself over a two-year stretch to be as good as they come, then it's almost as good as they come, a lot of juggling is the order. The juggling of Toronto Maple Leafs has been scarcely at all the team that won the Stanley Cup in 1932 and lost it in the finals last Spring to the Rangers. Conny Smythe, more satisfied than most National Hockey League chiefs, has added a high-scoring winger to his front of forwards, and replaced Lorne Chabot, veteran goaltender, with the even more time-tried George Hainsworth. Chabot joined Canadiens in exchange for the easy-going puck blocker from Kitchener.

The defences proved strong enough through last season to suit Smythe, for in front of Hainsworth will be King Clancy, Alex Levinsky, Happy Day and Red Horner, with a remote possibility Freddy Robertson or Ace Hollett, both with Syracuse in the International League, will get some NHL experience.

As long as Clancy, offensive firebrand, and Day, just as effective on the attack as the King, play up to last season's form, there is no need for rearguard reinforcement. Horner and Levinsky are among the heaviest body-checkers in the circuit. Working out with Leafs at Kitchener, Robertson and Hollett have impressed observers with their ability, but there would seem to be no opening for defencemen on Toronto roster.

Signing two days ago of Charlie Conacher, husky right-winger, ended worry over the "kid" line. Conacher, Joe Primeau and Harvey Jackson, who accumulated more scoring points than any other trio in the league in the last three years, will again pace the Leaf attack.

BATTLE FOR PLACES

A five-way battle is under way at Kitchener for places on No. 3 front line between Ken Doraty, Andy Blair, Harold Cotton, Charlie Sands and Buzz Boll. Sands, brought up from Syracuse late last season and a hero of the Boston-Leaf play-off series, is a promising candidate for a right-wing berth. Boll has played brilliantly in practice, and Doraty, Blair and Cotton seem to have slipped not at all.

The Smythe-Irvin men, reported to be in better shape for the November 9 opening than a year ago, are scheduled to play several exhibition games before they face Boston Bruins here in the first N.H.L. game. Performances of doubtful starters in these games will decide who stays up and who doesn't.

WHEELERS AND ROUGHRIDERS WILL BATTLE

Montreal and Ottawa Grid Teams to Meet in Important Fixture

TORONTO, Oct. 26 (CP).—Montreal's football team will carry the whole-hearted banner of Argonauts into battle, Saturday, against the Ottawa Roughriders. There is, of course, an ulterior motive behind this switch of Toronto tactics.

While Argos are playing Hamilton Tigers here in one-half the Big Four men, Roughriders and Wheelers will be deciding the immediate fate of the pursuing Argonauts as well as seasonal supremacy between themselves. Montreal can keep both Montreal and Toronto in the running with a victory over Ottawa.

Roughriders have whipped Tigers in Hamilton and Argos and Wheelers in Ottawa. If they can win one of their two remaining away games, it should be simple for Wally Masters' men to win.

FINE WIN RECORD

Except for a pre-season defeat by Sarnia, Wheelers have not dropped a home game in more than two years. Argos, on the strength of their 21-2 win over Tigers last week, will start strong favorites to repeat the win here. If Wheelers do what the scullers hope they will and beat Ottawa, Argos face the tough job of whipping the Roughriders here and Montreal away to finish in a possible three-cornered tie for the lead.

This won't work out, however, if Hamilton springs a surprise by winning one of its remaining games.

The inter-collegiate schedule reaches the vital point Saturday. The twin leaders, Queen's and University of Toronto, clash at Kingston and the loser will be on even terms with the winner of the McGill-Western game at London.

NITSICHIN WINS HANDICAP EVENT

D. S. Kennedy's Horse Captures Jockey Club Cup—Chate-laine Second

NEWMARKET, England, Oct. 26 (CP).—In a five-year-old, Nitsichin won the Jockey Club Cup Handicap over a two and a quarter-mile course here this afternoon. She finished a length and a half in front of E. T. Thornton-Smith's Chate-laine, with Victor Emanuel's Statesman third, the same distance back.

Nitsichin was the favorite at 11 to 8, Chate-laine was 15 to 8, and Statesman 11 to 4. So the turfgoers had their merits judged pretty well. The winner, bay filly by Actuel out of Latium, carried 123 pounds. Chate-laine 107 and Statesman 112. It was the sixty-first running of the Jockey Club Cup. Last year Brulette had a walk-over.

Australian Horse To Be Given Much Work by Trainer

Polson Says Winooka Short on Racing Condition—Entered in Six-Furlong Sprint Today at Laurel Park—To Carry Top Weight

By Orlo Robertson

(Associated Press Sports Writer)

NEW YORK, Oct. 26 (AP).—Winooka, a 5-year-old Australian invader which finished last in a five-horse special race yesterday, will be given another chance tomorrow, when he meets six sprinters in the six furlongs of the Westover Handicap, at Laurel, Md.

The Australian champion's second race in the East will not be made to order for him, however, as was the Challenger Handicap, won by A. C. Hostwick's Mate. In tomorrow's dash Winooka will oppose horses of slightly lower calibre than he met in his debut, but he also will be asked to pick up 126 pounds and give from six to twenty-one pounds to the other starters.

Will Oppose Six

The five-year-old son of Windbag will meet S. Labroz's Springsteel, with 120 pounds in the saddle; Mrs. Payne Whitney's Curacao, carrying 118; C. T. Grayson's Band Wagon and Hope-to-Do, with 109 and 108 pounds up, respectively; the Whimsy Stables' De Valera and J. W. Y. Martin's Dark Hope. De Valera has been assigned 106 pounds and Dark Hope the lowest of 105.

Winooka came out of his race yesterday in good condition, according to Trainer Michael Polson. He had no excuses to offer for his charge's failure.

"He was short on racing condition," said Polson, "and I have decided to give him plenty of work. I know Winooka can do much better."

CLEVELAND OUT OF ICE HOCKEY

Indian Team to Be Disbanded—Hamilton May Take Over Franchise

DETROIT, Oct. 26 (AP).—The Cleveland club will be dropped from the International Hockey League this year, leaving a five-team circuit, it was announced tonight, following an all-day meeting of club and league officials here.

Manager Harry Holmes, whose Indians finished in last place last season, and deep in the hole financially, told his story to the league, and the Cleveland franchise was declared inoperative, for at least one year.

Negotiations were opened with Percy Thompson and the owners of the Hamilton arena, other Canadian cities in the loop are London and Windsor, while the three United States teams will be from Buffalo, Syracuse and Detroit.

Players of the Cleveland squad will be divided among four of the five remaining teams. Olympics, of Detroit, waived their claims to any of the players, and they will go to the Windsor, London, Syracuse and Buffalo clubs.

Three of the players already have been placed. Bernie Brophy will go to London, Frank Daley to Windsor and Jack Riley to Syracuse.

The scheduled opening date remains November 9 and the teams will play forty-eight games, on a

NEW ZEALAND MAN ADVOCATING MEET AT EMPIRE GAMES

Sir Thomas M. Wilford Says Antipodeans Anxious to Arrange Tournament to Include Canada, England, Scotland, Ireland, Wales, Australia and South Africa

LONDON, Oct. 26 (CP).—Sir Thomas M. Wilford, New Zealand's High Commissioner to the United Kingdom, today advocated an Empire Rugby football tournament between teams from Canada, England, Scotland, Ireland, Wales, Australia, New Zealand and South Africa.

The High Commissioner, speaking at a luncheon in Wembley Stadium, where the next Empire games and swimming events will be held, said New Zealand was most anxious such a tournament should be held, and he hoped, even if unable to muster a team as strong as those of other Empire countries, would compete.

Games in an Intra-Empire Rugby football tournament would be played under English rules, with teams of fifteen men each.

SOUTH AFRICA IN LINE

CAPETOWN, South Africa, Oct. 26 (CP).—It was learned authoritatively today that South African Rugby football authorities might be willing to compete in an Empire tournament, such as was suggested in London by High Commissioner Sir Thomas M. Wilford of New Zealand, only if the tournament was substituted for South Africa's tour of Australia and New Zealand in 1937.

CANADA FAVORABLE

WINNIPEG, Oct. 26 (CP).—Canada would be able to muster a team and acquit herself creditably in competition with Empire teams in an all-Empire Rugby tournament, R. S. Swan Dixon, president of the Canadian British Rugby Union, stated here tonight.

"I am all in favor of an Empire Rugby football tournament," Mr. Swan Dixon said. "Of course the financing of such an enterprise would be a factor to be considered. A Canadian team toured Japan two years ago and made a very fine showing. I see no reason why an Empire tournament should not be arranged, and I feel sure Canada could provide opposition equal to the best in the Empire."

Sir Thomas M. Wilford, New Zealand's High Commissioner to the United Kingdom, at London, tonight advocated an Empire tournament between teams from Canada, England, Scotland, Ireland, Wales, Australia, New Zealand and South Africa.

LOCAL OFFICIAL LAUDS MOVE

B. Russell Ker, vice-president of the Canadian English Rugby Union, when informed last night of the proposition advanced by Sir Thomas M. Wilford, stated he thought the suggestion an excellent one and believed that Canada would support it wholeheartedly. Mr. Ker stated that a tournament of the type proposed by New Zealand's High Commissioner at London, would be a great stimulus to the game both in Canada and the Old Country and the various Dominions.

Mr. Ker stated that the recent exhibition games in British Columbia between Japan and the return visit to Japan by the Canadian all-stars two years ago had been a great success and he hoped that Sir Thomas' proposal would meet with the approval of the other units of the Empire.

Plans, he stated, were now in formation for a tour of an English team to Canada and for another visit from the Japanese. He declared that Rugby in Canada was expanding greatly, and the Prairies and Eastern Canada were beginning to take to the game in a most favorable manner.

gymnasiums, in the newly formed Royal Juvenile Athletic Basketball League. All fixtures, except the first, will commence at 7 o'clock, and close battles are expected to feature the opening.

Remember When

(Twenty-Five Years Ago)

The representative fifteen going under the "A" colors captured the exhibition Rugby fixture yesterday afternoon at the Oak Bay Park by scoring a 18 to 0 win over the "B" squad. From the start, the regulars had the edge and scored three tries in the initial period, chiefly through the work of the forwards. Johnson, fleet-footed fullback, converted all the scores and the score at the interval was 13 to 0. Vincent added two more tries shortly after the resumption of play, but a heavy ball caused Johnson to miss both conversions. J. Tait, of Vancouver, who happened to be in goal, kindly refereed the match, and a good crowd was in attendance.

Three close senior soccer league matches took place yesterday afternoon. At Clark's field, the Cedar Hill and Esquimalt eleven tried conclusions, the latter winning by a 4 to 2 score, while at Work Point Barracks, the Garrison and J.B.A.A. clashed with the osseous emerging victorious, 2 to 1. Victoria West captured the other fixture by downing the 5th Regiment, 3 to 1, at the Royal Athletic Park.

This week's telegraphic bowling match, in which teams from Victoria, New Westminster and Vancouver competed, was won by the latter aggregation, with Victoria second and the Royal City trundlers a close third. The local scores were as follows: Toulson, 537; Moran, 479; Fox, 503; Mudge, 514; Jameson, 442. Vancouver's winning total was 2,559.

Abie Attell and D. Woolgar have been matched to fight twenty rounds for the featherweight championship of the world at the Jeffries Club, at Los Angeles, on November 10, it was announced yesterday. Attell, it is reported, will receive a guarantee of $2,000 win, lose or draw.

After a close and exciting game in the last quarter of which the score was tied at nine-all, the Canadian lacrosse squad defeated the United Kingdom in the Olympic Winter games in the first game of the series at London, England, yesterday, by a 14 to 10 score. The home club had a good share of the play, but lacked finesse, missing many opportunities when they would have meant victory. After the game, Lord Roberts and Lord Desborough visited the Canadians dressing room and shook hands with the players. The Lord Mayor and sheriff of London witnessed the game.

ARSENAL TO MAKE STRONG BID FOR LEADERSHIP

Gunners to Field Strong Team for Tomorrow's Game

Arsenal Hopes to Supplant Tottenham Hotspurs at Top of English First Division—Spurs to Tackle Middlesbrough—Motherwell to Play Partick Thistle

LONDON, Oct. 26 (CP).—Striving to get back at the top of the First Division of the English Football League, Arsenal, league champions, will use their full strength tomorrow in their match at Aston Villa's park on Saturday.

Arsenal are only one point back of Tottenham Hotspurs, the former Second Division team, and if they win over Aston Villa and Middlesbrough managers to defeat or even tie the Spurs, Gunners will be on top.

Tottenham, however, are confident of picking up points when they entertain the lowly Middlesbrough eleven, which, despite its setbacks this season, has been disposing of some of its best players.

Middlesbrough Town and Leeds United, tied for third place, have tough assignments. Huddersfield are at home to West Bromwich Albion, who are in fifth place, and the United travel to Sunderland.

Chelsea engages Newcastle in London while Leicester City tackles Everton.

Port Vale travel to Preston North End in an endeavor to hold their slim lead in the Second Division. Bolton Wanderers, pressing them hard, will field their regular eleven against Fulham.

The lowly Lincoln City team meets West Ham United. Queen's Park Rangers anticipate no trouble holding their lead in the Southern Section of the Third Division when they meet Bournemouth.

Crystal Palace and Clapton Orient, chasing in a London "derby," will both do some shuffling. The Palace juggling their forward line around Watford, almost in the cellar, are also making drastic changes.

In the Northern Section, Chesterfield, getting into a long lead, have an easy assignment with New Brighton.

SCOTTISH LEAGUE. Glasgow, Scotland, Oct. 26 (CP).—Motherwell, undefeated in Scottish Football League matches this season and held to a tie only twice, look forward confidently to increasing their string of victories.

Saturday, at the expense of the hickies Partick Thistle. The Thistle are only out of the cellar position by a slight goal average.

Striving to whittle down Motherwell's four-point lead, the league champions and Glasgow Cup winners, Rangers, take on the fast-traveling Kilmarnock eleven, who are holding down third place along with Aberdeen. The latter travel to play Hamilton Academicals.

Deadlock between Dunfermline and Stenhousemuir, in the Second Division, will likely continue after Saturday's tussle, for both top-side elevens expect to win their engagements.

Dunfermline have drawn Dundee United and Stenhousemuir are at home to Forfar Athletic.

DAVIES IN FOR TOUGH SESSION

Victoria Fighter Facing Strong Opposition in Henry Woods Tonight

According to prominent North-western fight critics, Albie Davies, Victoria's junior welterweight boxer, is due to experience the toughest battle of his career at Yakima, this evening, when he meets Henry Woods, sensational Yakima boxer, in the ten-round main event of the American Legion Milk Fund boxing card.

Woods is rated by Nate Druksman, prominent Seattle promoter, as the finest boxer that has ever been developed in the Northwest, and that goes, he says, for Johnny O'Leary, Tod Morgan, Leo Lomeki, Freddy Steele and others.

Dick Sharp, fight expert of The Seattle Post-Intelligencer, rates Woods as being a much better fighter than Wildcat Carter at his best, and considers him as the nearest approach to Joe Gans of any of the colored boys that have come along since the old lightweight masters' time.

The local fighter, who has been in Seattle training for the last three weeks, was chosen for tonight's bout after Charlie Miller, of San Francisco, received injuries which prevented him from going ahead with his bout with Woods.

Davies, according to reports from Seattle, is showing marked improvement, but is handicapped considerably in his training due to the fact skipping and roadwork have to be eliminated from his training on account of his leg, which was fractured in a motorcycle accident last August. It is the intention of local promoters to try and rematch these two fighters for a bout here should tonight's contest prove to be anywhere evenly contested.

THE "BUCK-EYE" STATE
 "Can you tell me why the State of Ohio is called 'The Buck-Eye State'?" writes one of our readers. "I know that many states are named after some word or expression of the Indians who were its original inhabitants, but I have read a good deal of Indian lore and have not come across anything illuminating for this name for the State of Ohio."
 Ohio is called "The Buck-Eye State" because of the number of its buck-eye or horse-chestnut trees!

YU'ANHEE SEE LAUGHS

by Sax Rohmer

CHAPTER XI

There is a fine old house in the Darb el Ahmar, not far from the Bab el Zuweila, in the native quarter of Cairo, which, after standing vacant for a number of years, apparently found a tenant. Some time in 1923 it was leased, and ever since had been occupied.

The frontage on the street is not imposing, except for two rather fine windows above a bleached door covered with Arabic inscriptions. But it contains some fine apartments on the first floor, and on the night of the twentieth—i.e. two days before the Wallaroo was due at Port Said—one of them was the setting of a scene to witness which Dawson Haig would have paid much.

This lofty, rectangular room, illuminated by two hanging lamps of perforated brass, was otherwise simply furnished in the Arab manner.

Under the light of one of the lamps was set a coffee table, and near to it, buried in cushions, Orange Blossom lay, sheathed in a robe of nearly transparent pink silk, her slender ankles intertwined, her little feet bare, so that the manicured nails on her tiny toes glistened like coral at her slightest movement.

She smoked cigarettes and drank tea from a porcelain cup. A large silver incense burner sent up clouds of perfumed smoke. The three doors of the apartment were closed, so was oppressive to a degree.

The native latch of one of the three doors was depressed. Yu'An Hee came in, wearing just such another plain blue robe as that which he had worn in the office of Jo Lung in Limehouse. He closed the door and looked along the room.

"Little blossom," he said, his strange voice echoing in the nearly-empty room. "You love the perfume of Ho Nan. I, too, love it, but you burn too much."

The woman pouted. "I can never do as I like," she exclaimed. "Since you brought me from China, I have never known any happiness. What have you come to tell me? Is it that I must embark upon a ship, still in a train, or be sick in an airplane? Something, I see in your eyes."

Yu'An Hee saw watched her, smiling.

"There is indeed a further journey which you must take, little one," he said, "but surely you welcome it—or are you so happy in the house of Aswami Pasha that you regret to leave Cairo?"

"I have small love for Aswami," she replied, "and less for Cairo. We are going, then, to Arabia? There, at least, I have my comforts—my servants."

"In the morning, Orange Blossom," he walked slowly towards her. "You have until the dawn of tomorrow in which to talk to me, to bewitch me with your beauty, and make me more completely your slave."

The woman smiled up at him as he bent over her. "You know that I love you, Yu'An," she whispered. "I begin to believe so, since you have followed me around the world."

"Followed?"

"You were free to leave me at any time."

Dimly the note of a gong sounded in some place below. "Go now to your room," said Yu'An Hee. "This is Aswami who has arrived. I shall be detained, perhaps for an hour."

In a small square room on the ground floor of the house, furnished very simply as an office, Aswami Pasha sat waiting.

To the gang assembled in the Restaurant Suleiman Bey in Paris he was known as the Chief, but here, in scrupulously correct evening dress, he was an Egyptian gentleman of established position. Nevertheless, he watched the door of the room with a certain nervousness, not strictly in keeping with Moslem fatalism.

Presently Yu'An Hee See replied in the same language. "You are an hour late. What is the explanation?"

Yu'An Hee See stood framed in the open doorway, looking at the Egyptian, his eyes nearly closed.

"It is simple," was the reply. "The pilot made a forced landing but a good one. We were ten miles from Heliopolis—which, I think, explains my delay."

"It explains it," the reedy voice conceded. "I accept this explanation. I would add that if such accidents occur to others of our company disaster lies before us like a gulf which no man can pass."

"I have no fears," the Egyptian assured him. "Here is the pilot. I can tell you where every man of the company is at the present moment."

"Or should be."

"Some are out of reach, I admit, but with the others we can get in touch if you desire it."

"I do not desire it. You are responsible." He raised a plump hand, the pointed index finger curled.

"I do not wish to see your report. Tell me that there has been no hitch."

"No hitch."

"Very good. I am perhaps foolish, but in London everything went wrong. Since this is our biggest venture, I thought that the auguries were unfavorable."

"Across the coarse but handsome features of the Egyptian a momentary cloud passed, its passage instantly detected by those nearly-closed eyes of Yu'An Hee See."

"You also have been disturbed?"

The voice was very soft but incredibly high.

"No. Excellency!" Aswami forced a smile. "One of the men rather alarmed me on the night we met in Paris."

"It was the Scotsman? He must be watched."

"No, not MacLies. I distrust him only when he is sober. Also, I have arranged to replace him if necessary. But Kid Brown exchanged words with a stranger downstairs in the restaurant."

"Tell me about this."

"He went down with Franz Hartog, our second engineer, whom he had thrashed for a breach of Orders. And this stranger, except for some Russian idiosyncrasy, was the only person in the restaurant. Too late," he reported the matter to me, admitting that he may have been indiscreet."

There was a momentary silence; then—

"Repeat to me," said Yu'An Hee See, "in the man's own words, exactly what he reported to you, including his description of this stranger."

Those desperate, drab streets which lead from the docks at Marseilles to the more habitable quarters of the city were several inches deep in an unpleasant kind of light yellow mud. The buildings were yellowish grey; the sky was of this muddy complexion also.

"Simply too unbelievably ugly," Eileen declared, as the taxi floundered and thumped through the morass. "And I'm real sorry I started."

"That's rather mean of you, Eileen," said Jack Rattray, the first officer, smiling his slow smile.

"Don't you think so, doctor?"

Dr. Oestler, who sat upon the girl's left—the three were packed in like sardines—patted Eileen's arm soothingly.

"At least, Miss Kearney," he said, "it makes a small change. We shall not be ashore again until we reach Port Said. And what does it matter, this mud and the grey sky? He? Presently we shall be convivial with a little cocktail—ha? And it makes a small change."

Eileen turned to him and laughed. The outstanding characteristics of the Austrian doctor, as she had discovered during their short acquaintance, was his astonishing quality of soothing.

They presently reached a hotel, turned into the little lounge on the right of the door, and sat down at a table.

"Good Lord!" said Eileen. "There's that ghastly woman—with the chief!"

Blind crystalles, found in Ozark caves, have developed long hairs on their claws, which act as sense organs and take the place of eyes in detecting prey.

Members of the Royal Astronomical Society of Canada are awaiting with pleasure the next meeting of the local centre this evening when Dr. J. A. Pearce, Ph.D., F.R.S.C., will give an illustrated lecture on "New Stars," those mysterious objects which have suddenly appeared in the sky, shone brightly for a short time and then faded from sight.

Particular mention will be made of the new star seen by Hipparchus in 134 B.C., the extraordinary Nova of Tycho Brahe in 1572, and several of the more recent, such as Nova Persei in 1901, Nova Aquilae in 1918, Nova Pictoris in 1922, and several others.

The recent outburst of the old Nova R.S. Ophiuchi, which suddenly became a naked-eye object last August and then rapidly faded away, is now of the eleventh magnitude, will be described and a specially prepared slide showing this outburst will be shown.

Besides discussing the distribution of these new stars in the sky, their distances, intrinsic luminosities and their peculiar constitution as revealed by their spectra, the various explanations proposed to account for these remarkable objects will be briefly reviewed.

The meeting will be held at 8 o'clock at the Y.W.C.A., and is open free to the public. All interested in astronomy are cordially invited to attend the meeting and to become members of the society.
